

Commercial Law (OLAW0101) Exam 17.04.2008

Guidelines:

Each answer must be written on a separate paper, and to each of these you must fill the information required on the paper.

Please leave a marginal of two spaces to the right side of the paper. Please write down your answer in clear handwriting.

You must leave one paper per question with the necessary information even though you don't answer the question or are giving up the test.

In this exam the space for your answer is one whole sheet. The part of an answer that is longer than one sheet will not be read. There are four questions in this exam and you must answer them all. The maximum available amount of points is $4 \times 10 = 30$ points.

1. Obligation of the seller under CISG? (Lookofsky: Understanding the CISG in Scandinavia)
2. Seller's remedies for breach? (Lookofsky: Understanding the CISG in Scandinavia)
3. How do you establish a business in Finland as a private entrepreneur, as a general partnership or as a limited partnership? (Holopainen: Establishing and Doing Business in Finland)
4. What is meant by Societas Europea and how do these companies fit in to national legal systems of Finland and the country you have chosen as a comparison (van Gerven etc.: The European Company)
